

*Atlantic
Cities*

THE STUDY TEAM...

- Mrs. Bérénice Richard, student in Sciences po Rennes Campus de Caen and member of the ESO laboratory.
- Mrs. Danielle le Bihan, member of the European Jean Monnet Chair, professor of Public Law and Vice-President of the University of Rennes 2.
- Mr Guy Baudelle, teacher-researcher of Geography in the Laboratory ESO, University of Rennes 2
- Mr Nicolas Escach, teacher-researcher of Geography in Sciences Po Rennes (Institut d'Etudes Politiques).

... IN COLLABORATION WITH

- The General Secretariat of the Atlantic Cities Network (Mrs Espineira and Mrs Yacelga)
- The experts and representatives of member cities, non-members or other Atlantic networks

THE MOTIVES OF THE STUDY

- Update the association's political charter, identifying not only new challenges but also an order of operational and strategic priorities for the period 2020-2030.
- A context of change
- The necessity to highlight a real specificity of Atlantic cities, in order to implement an effective development ecosystem and mobilize forces
- Forming a renewed, transparent and relevant method of cooperation in the face of today's and tomorrow's challenges.

THE METHODOLOGY

- Implementation of surveys among the experts of each city, in order to identify the priority themes and the expectations for the period 2020-2030
- Diagnostic of the internal strategic policies and planning of the cities members, as well as European factors of change
- Redefinition of the network's methods of action through the definition of an operational strategy

THE FIRSTS RESULTS

THE DELIVERABLES

- The final rapport (September)
- A summary note of the study in English, Spanish, Portuguese and French (September)
- The 5 common themes and objectives identified through the interviews, with their respective operational plans
- The presentation and vote of the results and scenarios during the Cherbourg General Assembly (the 22th October 2019)

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTION AND COLLABORATION TO THIS STUDY

LET'S PARTICIPATE TO THE SURVEYS !

<https://doodle.com/poll/9v8snxngwhmsre85>
info@atlanticcities.eu
berenice.richard@hotmail.fr

Atlantic
Cities